Agenda modified to move selection of Committee chair for 2023 to follow discussion of Moodle: the role going forward. The agenda in its final form has been posted to our Moodle site.

- Moodle: the role going forward
Vance Matson agreed to manage the Moodle site for a three-year term. It was further agreed that the committee would revisit the issue annually by having Vance give a brief update to promote and encourage uptake by committee members.
- Select Committee Chair for 2023 meeting
James Gifford (Fairleigh Dickinson University) has agreed to host the annual meeting for 2023.
- Business Arising from 2021 Minutes: Report on Applied Ethics Questionnaire (Bruce Howes)
Bruce gave a report on the questionnaire submitted to members. The original survey, Bruce's analysis of the results and a summary file (as a Word doc) have been posted to the appropriate tab at our Moodle site. A chat forum has also been created there.
- BCCAT report: Fiona McQuarrie
Fiona's report is posted to our Moodle site.
- Information item: BCSSTA Conference: "Teaching for Inquiry: Philosophy, Pedagogy, and Praxis" (October 21, 2022)
Dale Martelli is presently organizing this event and will post an announcement to our Moodle site. There is also a chat forum on the topic of "philosophy as a teachable major for education students" under the tab labeled "Further topical discussion forums."
- New Business Arising: Indigenization of the discipline
An extensive discussion was led by Anna Cook and several resources have been posted to our Moodle site under the tab labeled "Indigenization."
- Campus reports/issues arising
Those campus reports received to date have been posted to our Moodle site under the tab labelled, "Institutional Reports."
