INTRODUCTION

This is the second report on B.C. College Transfer Students registered with the University of Northern British Columbia. College transfer students represent roughly 25% of all new students who enter Northern British Columbia. In this report, the 1998/99 and 1999/00 cohort of students is profiled.

This report begins with a general overview of transfer students, followed by an analysis of their academic performance at UNBC. Also in this report is a section profiling students with some college experience who were admitted to UNBC as non-“B.C. College Transfer” students. Throughout the report, inter-college comparisons are displayed where appropriate and comparisons with students who come directly from B.C. secondary schools are provided.

Section A provides a general profile of transfer students by:

- B.C. College, University College or Technical Institute from which students transfer to UNBC;
- The distribution of the number of transfer credits by college;
- Number of credit hours students register for in their first semester;
- Full-time/part-time status;
- “UNBC College” (see explanation in Table 6 on Page 25) in which the students intend to major;
- Degree goal or credential students pursue;
- Program students pursue;
- Gender; and
- Age upon admission to UNBC.

Section B presents the academic performance indicators for transfer students:

- Grade point average (GPA) upon admission;
- GPA after the first semester at UNBC, after 15 credit hours and after 30 credits at UNBC; and,
- GPA in selected Mathematics and English courses compared to direct entry students.

Section C examines the group of students who had some college experience, but were admitted to UNBC as non-“B.C. College Transfer” students. This section shows:

- B.C. College from which students have some transfer credits;
- Year and Basis of Admission;
- Distribution of transfer credits by B.C. College;
- Age when first registered at UNBC; and
- Gender.

DEFINITIONS

B.C. College transfer students include those students from B.C. Colleges, University Colleges or Technical Institutes who are admitted with a minimum of 15 acceptable transfer course credits* and have a cumulative grade point average on all transferable courses of at least 2.0. Within the BANNER system used at UNBC, the admit code is “BC” or “BT”. There are 634 B.C. College transfer students included in this report.

B.C. Direct Entry Grade 12 students include those students whose first term registered with UNBC is Fall 1999 and who were admitted on the basis of a B.C. secondary school completion. Within the BANNER system used at UNBC, the admit codes are: ‘AA’, ‘BH’, ‘BG’, or ‘BS’. There are 749 B.C. Direct Entry Grade 12 students included in this report.

Students with College Experience include students who had some transfer credits from a B.C. College and were admitted to UNBC under other bases of admission, such as Mature Student, University Transfer, Special Entry, etc. There are 165 such students in this report.

Basis of Admission – Apart from B.C. College Transfers and B.C. Direct Entry Grade 12’s, applicants may be admitted to undergraduate studies at UNBC based on other qualifications as defined below:

Canadian Grade 12 or 13 – completion of grade 12 or 13 at a non-B.C. high school in Canada.

Foreign Equivalent of B.C. Grade 12 or 13 – the equivalent of grade 12 or 13 completion at a high school outside of Canada.

University Transfer – applicants in good standing at other recognized universities with a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0.

Second Undergraduate Degree – applicants with baccalaureate degrees from recognized universities. Students are expected to complete a minimum of 60 credit hours at UNBC plus any unmet first and second year requirements.

Transfer from a College outside of B.C. – applicants who have completed their studies at a college outside of British Columbia. The cumulative grade point average on all transferable courses attempted must be at least 2.0.

Transfer from Institutes of Technology – students who have transferred from a technical program with a CGPA on all transferable courses of at least 2.0.

* Definition of a B.C. College transfer student differs by university (e.g., SFU requires a minimum of 30 credits).

B.C. Adult Basic Education (ABE) Provincial Diploma – applicants may enter UNBC after successful completion of the ABE diploma. A minimum of C+ average is required based on an applicant’s performance in English, Math (algebra) and at least one Science course at an advanced level.

Exchange Student – students from other universities that have an exchange program with UNBC. Criteria for admission are based on a variety of factors including a CGPA of at least 2.67.

General Education Diploma – applicants must have a minimum of two Advanced level subjects and three Ordinary level subjects and have an overall GPA of C.

Mature Students – applicants must be 21 years of age and be out of secondary school for at least three years and must be a permanent B.C. resident.

Special Entry – applicants who do not meet the requirements under any specific category of admission. Normally a special entry student will enroll on a part-time basis for at least one semester. The applicant’s status will be reviewed at the end of the first semester.

Transfer credits – the total number of credits transferred from a post-secondary institution other than UNBC. The transfer credits that a student can apply to a UNBC degree are normally assessed after a student declares their major. A major is usually declared after 30 credits. Students at UNBC can transfer up to 90 credits, unlike other B.C. universities where the limit is normally 60 credits.

The student’s B.C. College of transfer is deemed to be the institution from which the most credits were transferred. The twelve colleges, five university colleges and two technical institutes represented in this report are organized by region:

At this point in time, UNBC does not set student quotas by admission categories. Historically, admission is done on a first come first served basis. The table below shows the percentage of students registered each year by the basis of admission.

Note: The table above represents statistics for the fall semester only. The analysis in this study examines the cohort of students for all academic semesters.

This study examines only the B.C. College transfer students whose first registered semester at UNBC was in 1998/99 or 1999/00.

ANALYSIS

A. Profile of B.C. College Transfer Students

Table 1: Distribution by B.C. College and Region

- Between April 1998 and August 31, 2000, there were 634 students registered on the basis of "B.C. College or B.C. Technical Institute transfers".
- Almost half of all college transfer students came from Northern B.C. Colleges.
- Thirty-eight percent (38 %) of the transfer students came from the College of New Caledonia.
- Thirty percent (30 %) of B.C. College transfer students came from the Lower Mainland, with Douglas College, Kwantlen University College and Langara College providing over seventy-two percent of these students.
- The Interior/Kootenays Region and Vancouver Island supplied fifteen percent (15 %) and seven percent (7 %) of B.C. College transfer students, respectively.

Tables 2 & 3: Distribution of Credits Transferred to UNBC

- The average number of transfer credit hours for all students was 46.6.
- Twenty-five percent (25 %) transferred more than 60 credits.
- Seventy-four percent (74 %) transferred more than 30 credits.
- On average, students from Camosun College transferred most credits (58) to UNBC, while Northern Lights College students transferred the least (28).

Table 4: First Semester Credit Hours taken at UNBC

- Approximately 11 % of College Transfer Students take one course during their first semester.
- Northern B.C. students take fewer credit hours than those from the Lower Mainland, Interior, or Vancouver Island.

Table 5: Full time/Part time status of transfer students

- The majority (65 %) of B.C. College transfer students are full-time students.
- Northern B.C. has the highest proportion of part-time students (47%). This is consistent with the fact that Northern B.C. students also take fewer credit hours during their first semester. Thirty-five percent of transfer students are part-time, compared to 16% of B.C. Direct Entry Gr. 12s.

Table 6: Distribution of Students by College of study

- Overall, 56 % of transfer students are enrolled in the College of Science and Management (CSAM), 37 % are enrolled in the College of Arts, Social and Health Sciences (CASHS), and the remainder is undeclared. It should be noted that students at UNBC do not have to declare their major until they reach 30 credit hours.
- Northern B.C. transfer students are enrolled evenly in the two colleges, while a noticeably higher proportion of students from the other regions are enrolled in CSAM.

Table 7: Program of Study

- The five most popular programs of study by College transfer students are:
 1. Forestry
 2. General Arts (tied)
 3. Social Work (tied)
 4. General Business
 5. Accounting
- The top programs of study by region are:
 - Northern B.C. - Social Work
 - Lower Mainland - Finance
 - Interior/ Kootenays - Forestry
 - Vancouver Island - Wildlife and Fisheries.

Table 8: Gender Distribution

- The majority of College transfer students are female (55 %).
- Males from the Interior/Kootenays region outnumber females (52% male).
- In all other regions there are more females than males.

Table 9: Age Distribution

- The average age of College transfer students is 24.7.
- Over 50 % of transfer students are between 20 and 24 years of age.
- Over 11 % of Northern B.C. transfer students are over 40.

B. Academic Performance

Table 10: Admission GPA Distribution

- The average and median admission GPA of College transfer students were 2.79 and 2.70, respectively.
- 60 % of transfer students were admitted with a GPA of 2.50 or higher, 30 % at 3.00 or higher, 10 % at 3.50 or higher, and 1.4 % at 4.00 or higher.

Table 11: Academic performance after coming to UNBC

This table shows the academic performance of transfer students at four points in their education at UNBC: 1) on admission to UNBC; 2) after the first semester at UNBC; 3) after 15 credit hours passed at UNBC; and 4) after 30 credit hours passed at UNBC.

- The average GPA at each of these points was 2.79, 2.76, 2.61, and 2.75, respectively.

Table 12: Academic performance - Mathematics

This table shows the academic performance in 100 level, 200 level, and 300 level mathematics courses of B.C. College transfer students.

- The average course grade of College transfer students was marginally higher than that of B.C. grade 12's in the 100 level mathematics. (1.97 vs. 1.90).
- At the higher levels, the College transfer students had lower average grades than the B.C. grade 12's. (200 level: 2.20 vs. 2.61, 300 level: 2.43 vs. 3.10).

Table 13: Academic performance - English

This table shows the academic performance in 100 level, 200 level, and 300 level English courses of B.C. College transfer students.

- The average course grade of College transfer students was marginally higher than that of B.C. grade 12's at all levels, except the 300 level, where they were equal.

C. Profile of Students with College Experience

Table 14: Students with College Experience admitted to UNBC

- There were 165 students admitted as non-B.C. College transfer students but who had some transfer credits.
- 61 % of these students received credit for courses taken at colleges in Northern British Columbia; 17 % at colleges in the Lower Mainland; 13 % at colleges in the Interior/Kootenays; 8 % at colleges on Vancouver Island; and 1 % at other colleges.
- The College of New Caledonia supplied most of the students with some college experience (42%).

Table 15: Students with College Experience - Basis of Admission

- 28 % of the students with some transfer credits were admitted as mature students.
- 28 % of the students with some transfer credits were admitted for interest only.
- 5.5 % of students in this category came from other B.C. universities.

Table 16: Distribution of transfer credits for students with some College Experience

- Including B.C. College transfer credits and credits from other institutions, 60 % of the students transferred with less than one year of credits (1-30 credits), 29 % transferred between one and two years of credits (31-60 credits) and 11 % transferred more than two years of credits.

Table 17: Age Distribution of students with College Experience

- Students admitted with some college experience are, on average, older than B.C. College transfer students (28.2 vs. 24.7).

Table 18: Gender Distribution of students with College Experience

- Females transferring to UNBC with some College credit (58%) outnumber the males admitted on this basis. Vancouver Island students are the exception where there are more males than females transferring to UNBC (54% male).
